Welcome

Thank you for taking an interest in this role at the Chrysalis Group.

We are a group of organisations, both commercial and not for profit, working in the specialist supported housing, specialist support and care sector. Chrysalis's expertise is recognised as a leader in the field. We have a tailored approach to scheme funding, investment, design, development, operational delivery, and robust viability, whilst meeting the Group's overall focus on social investment and charitable objectives.

This gives us a clear focus for the delivery of our objectives, that are captured within the design of our specialist services, simultaneously promoting and driving growth. We are able to deliver our charitable objectives through a 'not for profit' structure whilst ringfencing and creating separate investment opportunities through our commercial businesses.

The following pages contain a summary of life working at the Chrysalis Group, what we value and some of the great benefits that we offer. Please check you have downloaded everything you need to complete your application and return it electronically. Good luck with your application and I look forward to meeting you.

Best wishes,

Colin Mackell
CEO, Chrysalis Group.

Chrysalis Supported Association Limited (CSA), as a Registered Social Landlord (Housing Association), continues to pride itself on delivering effective and appropriate intensive housing management services to all of its vulnerable tenants. These intensive services not only ensure that tenants are living in safe and well-maintained homes with the right support, but also promote tenancy sustainment and independence regardless of the tenants needs.

When I first moved in after being in hospital for such a long time it was a very difficult and stressful time for me because of the transition but I am now in a good place. I am so independent and before I didn't even go out alone and my confidence was institutionalised. I love my home and I am treated with respect and kindness. I am very grateful to all the people that support me and have a positive impact in my life.

The Compass Project CIC (2012) was set up for and informed by people in recovery from addiction to help others recovering from addiction and mental health issues to return to mainstream society and live independent lives.

What we do:

- ✓ Provide flexible but structured and supervised recovery support options for individuals recovering from addiction, including rehabilitation, treatment and holistic support.
- ✓ Reduce offending and anti-social behaviours by promoting positive self-image enhancing strong recovery connections and creating meaning and purpose through the recovery programme.
- ✓ Improve mental and physical health for those recovering from addiction and transitioning toward independent living.
- ✓ Provide specialist structured, supervised, and non-supervised, supported living accommodation for participants.
- ✓ Supporting service users to acquire a landlord reference, help and support to gain where necessary a deposit, including an essential items furniture grant when people are ready to move on, into independent accommodation.
- ✓ Progress our participants into paid work when ready, through the permitted to work scheme, apprenticeships, or work training placements.
- ✓ Offer on-the-job social and interpersonal skills support and training to participants, in order to increase their future employability and ability to retain employment.
- ✓ Offer life skills training, such as assisting service users to learn to drive, open bank accounts, apply for passports and manage personal finances, regain family connections and enable our participants' access to full-time employment.

OPOKA is a national and multi award winning charity, providing comprehensive, high-quality specialist bilingual domestic abuse services for Polish women and children in the UK. It has opened up the UK's first Safe Structured Supported Accommodation service, providing safe-homes in the UK for Polish Women with or without children, delivered alongside Chrysalis Supported Association as a registered Social Landlord, and Touchstone as developer and investor.

The service is for Polish women and children who:

- Are survivors of domestic abuse.
- Have up to two children.
- Find it difficult to find support and suitable housing.
- Struggle to access services because of language barriers or knowledge.
- Are isolated, vulnerable and have limited financial independence.
- Who are unable to access safety and culturally sensitive support in Polish elsewhere.

The difference and outcomes that Opoka is making:

- Improving the immediate safety, health, and wellbeing of women and children and help them to feel safe and more empowered to seek help.
- Reducing disadvantage and inequality by helping women to improve their financial and economic security by supporting them to develop life and employment skills and helping them to access work.
- Raising community awareness and reach the most vulnerable, isolated, and marginalised families who need support.
- Strengthening local capacity to support women and children by training and working with local professionals in the field.
- Reducing domestic abuse, sexual and physical violence within Polish community and improving the lives of women and children by improving early interventions
- Reducing depression and suicide among Polish families in the UK by improving access to mental health support for Polish families and overcoming stigma and other barriers to seeking help.
